Explanation I:- A delivery of goods on the hire purchase or any system of payment by instalments shall, notwithstanding the fact that the seller retains the title in the goods, as security for payment of the price, be deemed to be a sale.

Explanation II:- (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Sale of Goods Act, 1930 a sale or purchase of goods shall be deemed, for the purpose of the Act to have taken place in the State, wherever the contract of sale or purchase might have been made, if the goods are within the State.

(i) in the case of specific or ascertained goods, at the time the contract of sale or purchase is made; and

(ii) in the case of unascertained or future goods, at the time of their appropriation to the contract of sale or purchase by the seller or by the purchaser, whether the assent of the other party is prior or subsequent to such appropriation.

(b) Whether there is a single contract of sale or purchase of goods situated at more places than one, the provisions of Clause (a) shall apply as if there were separate contracts in respect of the goods at each of such places.

Explanation III:- Notwithstanding anything contained in the Act or in the Indian Sale of Goods Act, 1930 two independent sales or purchases shall for the purposes of the Act, be deemed to have taken place.

- (1) When the goods are transferred from a principal to his selling agent and from the selling agent to his purchaser, or
- (2) When the goods are transferred from the seller to a buying agent and from the buying agent to his principal, if the agent is found in either of the cases aforesaid.
 - (i) to have sold the goods at one rate and to have passed on the sale proceeds to his principal at another rate; or
 - (ii) to have purchased the goods at one rate and to have passed them on to his principal at another rate; or
 - (iii) not to have accounted to his principal for the entire collections or deductions made by him, in the sales or purchases effected by him on behalf of his principal; or
 - (iv) to have acted for a fictitious or non-existent principal.

Explanation IV:- A transfer of right to use any goods for any purpose (whether or not for a specified period) for cash, deferred payment or other valuable consideration shall be deemed to be a sale.

Section 4 (8)

Explanation V:- Notwithstanding anything contained in the Act or in the Indian Sale of Goods Act, 1930 the sale of goods includes the supply, by way of or as part of any service or in any manner whatsoever, of goods, being food or other article for human consumption or any drink (whether or not intoxicating) where such supply or service, is for cash, deferred payment or other valuable consideration and such supply of any goods shall be deemed to be a sale of those goods by the person making the supply of those goods to the person to whom such supply is made.

Explanation VI:- Whenever any goods are supplied or used in the execution of a works contract, there shall be deemed to be a transfer of property in such goods, whether or not the value of the goods so supplied or used in the course of execution of such works contract is shown separately and whether or not the value of such goods or material can be separated from the contract for the service and the work done.

Explanation VII:- Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Sale of Goods Act, 1930 a sale or purchase of goods shall, for the purposes of the Act be deemed to have taken place where in the course of any scheme whether called as “Lucky Gift Scheme” or by any other name, any goods are transferred by the person who runs such scheme to any other person who is a subscriber to that scheme, provided that all the subscribers to the scheme have agreed to contribute a specific sum periodically or otherwise, towards the cost of any article agreed to be sold or given to the winner of the draw held by the holder of the scheme; and the turnover for the purpose of this explanation shall be the amount which would have been payable by the subscriber had he not won the prize till the end of the series of draw;

Explanation VIII:- Every transfer of property in goods by the Central Government or the State Government for cash or for deferred payment or for any other valuable consideration, whether or not in the course of business shall be deemed to be a sale for the purpose of the Act;

(29) ‘Sale Price’ means:-

- (a) the total amount set out in the tax invoice or bill of sale; or
- (b) the total amount of consideration for the sale or purchase of goods as may be determined by the assessing authority, if the tax invoice or bill of sale does not set out correctly the amount for which the goods are sold; or

(c) if there is no tax invoice or bill of sale, the total amount charged as the consideration for the sale or purchase of goods by a VAT dealer or TOT dealer either directly or through another, on his own account or on account of others, whether such consideration be cash, deferred payment or any other thing of value and shall include:

(i) the value of any goods as determined by the assessing authority:

(a) to have been used or supplied by the dealer in the course of execution of the works contract; or

(b) to have been delivered by the dealer on hire purchase or any other system of payment by instalments; or

(c) to have been supplied or distributed by a society including a Co-operative Society, Club, firm or association to its members, where the cost of such goods is not separately shown or indicated by the dealer and where the cost of such goods is separately shown or indicated by the dealer, the cost of such goods as shown or indicated;

(ii) any other sum charged by the dealer for anything done in respect of goods sold at the time of, or before, the delivery of the goods;

(iii) any other sum charged by the dealer, whatever be the description, name or object thereof;

Explanation-I – Subject to such conditions and restrictions, if any, as may be prescribed in this behalf, any cash or other discount on the price allowed in respect of any sale and any amount refunded in respect of articles returned by customers shall not be included in the sale price;

Explanation-II – For the purpose of determination of sale price and levy of Value Added Tax, the Value Added Tax charged or chargeable shall not form part of Sale Price;

'(7) Ant person required to deducted tax at source under sub-sections (3) and (4) fails to deduct or to remit such tax shall be liable to pay interest at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum for the delayed period'.

Sec.23. Liability of executor, administrator, legal representative:- (1) Where any dealer doing business in respect of which tax is payable under the Act is dead, the Executor, Administrator, Successor in title or other legal representative of the deceased dealer shall, in respect of such business, be liable to submit the returns due under the Act and to assessment under Section 21 and to pay out of the estate of the deceased dealer, the tax, interest and any penalty assessed or levied as payable by the deceased dealer.

- (2) The provision relating to appeals and revisions shall be applicable to assessment made under sub-section (1) as if the Executor, Administrator, Successor in title or other legal representative were himself the dealer.
- (3) The provisions of sub-sections (1) and (2) shall apply mutatis mutandis to a partnership firm of which the managing partners have died.

Sec.24. Liability of Partnership firms:- (1) Where any firm is liable to pay any tax or other amount under the Act, the firm and each of the partners of the firm shall be jointly and severally liable for such payment.

- (2) Where any business carried on by a firm or a Hindu Undivided Family or an Association has been discontinued or dissolved, the authority prescribed shall make an assessment on the taxable turnover and determine the tax payable as if no such discontinuance or dissolution had taken place and all the provisions of the Act including provisions relating to levy of penalty or any other amount payable under any of the provisions of the Act shall apply, to such assessment.
- (3) Every person who was at the time of such discontinuance or dissolution, a partner of the firm, or a member of such Hindu Undivided Family or Association and the legal representative of any such person who is deceased, shall be jointly and severally liable for the amount of tax, penalty or any other amount payable, and all the provisions of the Act shall apply to any such assessment or levy of penalty or any other amount.
- (4) Where such discontinuance or dissolution takes place after any proceedings in respect of any year have commenced, the proceedings may be continued against the VAT dealer or TOT dealer referred to in sub-section (2) from the stage at which such proceedings stood at the time of such discontinuance or dissolution and all the provisions of the Act shall apply accordingly.

- (5) When any private company is wound up and any tax assessed on the company under the Act for any period, whether before or in the course of or after its liquidation, cannot be recovered, then every person who was a director of the private company at any time during the period for which the tax is due, shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of such tax, unless he proves that the non-recovery cannot be attributed to any gross neglect, misfeasance or breach of duty on his part in relation to the affairs of the company.

Sec.25. Tax as an arrear of land revenue:- If the tax assessed or penalty levied or interest payable under the Act, or any amount of tax including deferred tax which is treated as a loan extended by the Government to the dealer and any instalment thereof, are not paid by a dealer within the time specified therefor, the whole of the amount then remaining unpaid may be recovered as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

Sec.26. Preferential claim to assets:- Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law for the time being in force, any amount of tax, including deferred tax which is treated as a loan extended by the Government to the dealer, penalty, interest and any other sum payable by a VAT dealer or TOT dealer or any other dealer under the Act, shall be the first charge on the property of the VAT dealer or TOT dealer or any other dealer as the case may be.

Sec.27. Transfers to defraud revenue void and Provisional Attachment of Property:-

- (1) Where during the pendency of any proceedings under the Act, or after the completion thereof, any VAT dealer or TOT dealer or any other dealer creates a charge on, or parts with the possession by way of sale, mortgage, gift, exchange or any other mode of transfer whatsoever, or any of his assets in favour of any other person such charge or transfer shall be void unless he proves that such charge or transfer was not with the intention to defraud any tax or any other sum payable.

- (2) (a) where, during the pendency of any proceeding for the assessment or reassessment of any tax or turnover tax which has escaped assessment, the authority prescribed is of the opinion that for the purpose of protecting the interests of the revenue it is necessary so to do, may with the previous approval of the Commissioner, by order in writing, attach provisionally in the prescribed manner any property belonging to the dealer;

Section 29, Rule 59

- (b) every such provisional attachment shall cease to have effect after the expiry of a period of six months from the date of the order made under clause (a):

Provided that the Commissioner may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the aforesaid period by such further period or periods as he thinks fit, so, however, that the total period of extension shall not in any case exceed two years.

Sec.28. Powers of Deputy Commissioner under Revenue recovery Act:- (1) A Deputy Commissioner shall have the powers of a Collector under the Andhra Pradesh Revenue Recovery Act, 1864 for the purpose of recovery of any amount due under the Act.

- (2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) all Deputy Commercial Tax Officers shall, for the purposes of recovery of any amount due under the Act, have the powers of the Mandal Revenue Officer under the Andhra Pradesh Rent and Revenue Sales Act, 1839 for the sale of property distrained for any amount due under the Act.
- (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Andhra Pradesh Rent and Revenue Sales Act, 1839 the Deputy Commercial Tax Officer in the exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) shall be subject to the control and superintendence of the Deputy Commissioner.

Sec.29. Recovery of tax from third parties:- (1) The Commissioner or any other authority prescribed may at any time or from time to time, by notice in writing

(a copy of which shall be forwarded to the dealer at his last address known to such authority) require any person from whom money is due or may become due to the defaulter, or any person who holds or may subsequently hold money for, or on account of the defaulter, to pay to such authority, either forthwith if the money has become due or is so held, within the time specified in the notice but not before the money becomes due or is held, so much of the money as is sufficient to pay the amount due by the defaulter in respect of arrears of tax, interest, penalty or the whole of the money when it is equal to or less than that amount.

Section 27(2), Rule 59

⁷⁵ Provided that in case of banks, the amount due to the defaulting dealer includes the amounts payable to the dealers by virtue of the overdraft facility.]

⁷⁵. Added proviso by the Act No.28, dated.24-09-2008, w.e.f.24-09-2008.

- (2) The authority prescribed may, at any time, or from time to time, amend or revoke any such notice or extend the time of making any payment in pursuance of the notice.
- (3) Any person making any payment in compliance with the notice under this section shall be deemed to have made the payment under the authority of the defaulter and the receipt of the authority prescribed shall constitute a good and sufficient discharge of the liability of such person to the extent of the amount referred to in the receipt.
- (4) Any person discharging any liability to the defaulter after receipt of the notice referred to in this section, shall be personally liable to the authority prescribed to the extent of the liability discharged or to the extent of the liability of the defaulter for the amount due under the Act, whichever is less.
- (5) Where any person to whom a notice under this section is sent proves to the satisfaction of the authority prescribed that the sum demanded or any part thereof is not due by him to the defaulter or that he does not hold any money for or on account of the dealer, then nothing contained in this Section shall be deemed to require such person to pay the sum demanded or any part thereof, to the authority prescribed.

- (6) Where any person to whom a notice under sub-section (1) is sent, fails to pay to the authority prescribed the sum demanded or any part thereof as required in the said notice, such sum shall be recoverable from such person as if it were an arrear of land revenue due from him.
- (7) The provisions of this Section shall be without prejudice to any action that may be taken for the recovery of the money due from the dealer.

Sec.30. Recovery of tax when business transferred:- Where ownership of the business of a dealer registered under the Act and liable to pay tax is transferred, any tax or any other amount payable under the Act in respect of such business and remaining unpaid at the time of the transfer, may without prejudice to any action that may be taken for its recovery from the transferor, be recoverable from the transferee as if the transferee were the dealer liable to pay such tax or other amount.

Appeals and Revisions

Sec.31. Appeal to Appellate authority:-(1) Any VAT dealer or TOT dealer or any other dealer objecting to any order passed or proceeding recorded by any authority under the provisions of the Act other than an order passed or proceeding recorded by an Additional Commissioner or Joint Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner, may within thirty days from the date on which the order or proceeding was served on him, appeal to such authority as may be prescribed:

Rules 38, 59

^{81.} Subs. sub-section (1) by the Act.4 of 2009, dated.03-03-2009, w.e.f.01-05-2009. The earlier clause was as:

1) Any dealer objecting to an order Passed or Proceeding recorded.

a) by any authority prescribed, on appeal under Section13;

b) by the Additional Commissioner, or Joint Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner under Section 21 or Section 32 or 38, may appeal to the Appellate Tribunal within sixty days from the date on which the order or proceeding was served on him'.

- (2) The Appellate Tribunal may within a further period of sixty days admit the appeal preferred after the period of sixty days specified in sub-section (1), if it is satisfied that the dealer had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within that period:

Provided further that no appeal against the order passed under sub-section (2) of section 32 shall be admitted under sub-section (12) or sub-section (2)

unless it is accompanied by satisfactory proof of the payment of the tax, penalty, interest or any other amount admitted by the appellant to be due or of such instalments as might have become payable, as the case may be, and twenty five percent of the difference of the tax, penalty, interest or any other amount ordered by the revisional authority under sub-section (2) of section 32 and the tax, penalty, interest or any other amount admitted to be due and paid by the appellant;

Provided also that no appeal against the order passed by any authority by following the ruling or order, issued under Section 67, shall be admitted under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) unless it is accompanied by satisfactory proof of the payment of the tax, penalty, interest or any other amount admitted by the appellant to be due or payable, or of such instalments thereof, as might have become payable, as the case may be and the proof of payment of fifty percent of the difference of the tax penalty, interest or any other amount, levied by the authority by following the ruling, issued under section 67, and the tax, penalty, interest or any other amount admitted to be due and paid by the appellant:

Provided also that the authority prescribed shall refund the said amount of twelve and half percent or twenty five percent or fifty percent of the difference of tax, penalty, interest or any other amount assessed by the authority prescribed or revisional authority as the case may be and the tax, penalty, interest or any other amount admitted and paid by the appellant, with interest calculated at the rate of 12% per annum if the refund is not made within 90 days from the date or receipt of the order passed under section 31 or section 33.]

82. The provisos to the sub-section (2) are substituted by the Act No.4 of 2009, dated.03-03-2009, w.e.f.01-05-2009, the original provisos reads as “Provided that no appeal against the order passed under Section 31 shall be admitted under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of this section unless it is accompanied by satisfactory proof of the payment of fifty percent of the tax as ordered by the Appellate Authority under Section 31:

Provided further that no appeal against the order passed under sub-section (2) of Section 32 shall be admitted under sub-section (1) or (2) unless it is accompanied by satisfactory proof of the payment of the tax admitted by the appellant to be due or in such instalments thereof as might have become payable as the case may be, and twenty five percent of the difference of the tax ordered by the revisional authority under sub-section (2) of Section 32 and the tax admitted by the appellant:

Provided also that the authority prescribed shall refund the said amount of twelve and half percent or twenty five percent or fifty percent of the difference of tax assessed by the authority prescribed or revisional authority as the case may be and the tax admitted and paid by the appellant, with interest calculated at the rate of 12% per annum if the refund is not made within 90 days from the date of receipt of the order passed under Section 31 or 33.:

- (3) The appeal shall be in the prescribed form, shall be verified in the prescribed manner, and shall be accompanied by such fee which shall not be less than Rs. one hundred only but shall not exceed Rupees two thousand only as may be prescribed.

Rule 44 (1); Form APP 401

- (4) The Appellate Tribunal may, after giving both parties to the appeal a reasonable opportunity of being heard:-
- (a) confirm, reduce, enhance or annul the assessment or the penalty or both; or
 - (b) set aside the assessment or the penalty, or both, and direct the authority prescribed to pass a fresh order after such further inquiry as may be directed; or
 - (c) pass such other orders as it may think fit:

Provided that if the appeal involves a question of law, a decision on which is pending in any proceeding before the High Court or the Supreme Court, the Appellate Tribunal may defer the hearing of the appeal before it, till such proceeding is disposed of.

- (5) (a) Before passing any order under sub-section (4), the Appellate Tribunal may make such inquiry as it deems fit or remand the case to the appellate authority against whose order the appeal was preferred or to the authority prescribed concerned, for an inquiry and report on any specified point or points.
- (b) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (4), where the VAT dealer or TOT dealer or any other dealer who has filed an appeal to the Appellate Tribunal fails to appear before the Appellate Tribunal either in person or by counsel when the appeal is called on for hearing, it shall be open to the Tribunal to make an order dismissing the appeal:

Provided that the Appellate Tribunal may, on an application made by the dealer within thirty days from the date of communication of the order of dismissal and on sufficient cause being shown by him for his non-appearance when the appeal was called on for hearing, re-admit the appeal on such terms as it thinks fit, after giving notice thereof to the authority against whose order or proceeding the appeal was preferred.

- (6) (a) Where a VAT dealer or TOT dealer or any other dealer, objecting to an order passed or proceeding recorded by a Deputy Commissioner under Section 21 or 32 has preferred an appeal to the Appellate Tribunal, the Additional Commissioner, or the Joint Commissioner may, on an application filed by the dealer, subject to such terms and conditions, as he may think fit, order stay of collection of the tax under dispute pending disposal of the appeal by the Appellate Tribunal;
- (b) The payment of tax and penalty, if any, due in accordance with the order of the first appellate authority or of the Deputy Commissioner under Section 21 or in revision under Section 32, in respect of which an appeal has been preferred under sub-section (1), shall not be stayed pending disposal of the appeal.
- (7) Except as provided in the rules Appellate Tribunal shall not have the power to award costs to either of the parties to the appeal.

Rule 44 (2)

- (8) Every order passed by the Appellate Tribunal under sub-section (4) shall be communicated by it to the dealer, the authority against whose order the appeal was preferred, the Commissioner and such other authorities as may be prescribed.

Rule 44 (3)

- (9) Every order passed by the Appellate Tribunal under sub-section (4) shall, subject to the provisions of Section 34 be final.

Rule 49

Sec.34. Revision by High Court:- (1) Within ninety days from the date on which an order under sub-section (4) of Section 33 was communicated to him the VAT dealer or TOT dealer or any other dealer or the authority prescribed in this behalf may prefer a petition to the High Court against the order on the ground that the Appellate Tribunal has either decided erroneously, or failed to decide, any question of law:

Rule 45

Provided that the High Court may admit a petition preferred after the period of ninety days aforesaid if it is satisfied that the petitioner had sufficient cause for not preferring the petition within that period.

- (2) The petition shall be in the prescribed form, shall be verified in the prescribed manner, and shall, where it is preferred by the dealer, be accompanied by a fee of Rs.500/-.

Rule 46; Form APP 402

- (3) If the High Court, perusing the petition considers that there is no sufficient ground for interfering, it may dismiss the petition summarily:

Provided that no petition shall be dismissed unless the petitioner has had a reasonable opportunity of being heard in support thereof.

- (4) (a) If the High Court does not dismiss the petition summarily, it shall, after giving both parties to the petition, a reasonable opportunity of being heard, determine the question or questions of law raised and either reverse, affirm, or amend the order against which the petition was preferred, or remit the matter to the Appellate Tribunal with the opinion of the High Court on the question or questions of law raised, or pass such other order in relation to the matter as the High Court thinks fit.

- (b) Where the High Court remits the matter to the Appellate Tribunal under clause (a) with its opinion on the question or questions of law raised, the Appellate Tribunal shall amend the order passed by it in conformity with such opinion.
- (5) Before passing an order under sub-section (4), the High Court may, if it considers it necessary so to do, remit the petition to the Appellate Tribunal and direct it to return the petition with its finding on any specific question or issue.
- (6) (a) Notwithstanding that a petition has been preferred under sub-section (1) tax shall be paid in accordance with the assessment made in the case:

Rule 49

Provided that the High Court may, in its discretion permit the petitioner to pay the tax in such number of instalments, or give such other direction in regard to the payment of tax as it thinks fit:

Provided further that if, as result of the petition, any change becomes necessary in such assessment, the High Court may authorise the authority prescribed to amend the assessment, and on such amendment being made the excess amount paid by the dealer shall be refunded to him without interest, or the further amount of tax due from him shall be collected in accordance with the provisions of the Act, as the case may be.

- (b) The payment of tax and penalty, if any due in accordance with the order of the Appellate Tribunal in respect of which a petition has been preferred under sub-section (1) shall not be stayed pending the disposal of the petition, but if such amount is reduced as a result of such petition, the excess tax paid shall be refunded in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

- 7) (a) The High Court may, on the application of the dealer or the authority prescribed review any order passed by it under sub-section (4) on the basis of facts which were not before it when it passed the order;

Rule 48; Form APP 604

- (b) The application for review shall be preferred within such time, and in such manner as may be prescribed and shall, where it is preferred by the dealer, be accompanied by a fee of Rupees one hundred only.
- (8) In respect of every petition or application preferred under sub-section (1) or sub-section (7), the costs shall be in the discretion of the High Court.

Sec.35. Appeal to High Court:- (1) Any VAT dealer or TOT dealer or any other dealer objecting to an order relating to assessment passed by the Commissioner suo-moto under Section 32 or 38 may appeal to the High Court within sixty days from the date on which the order was communicated to him:

Provided that the High Court may admit an appeal preferred after the period of sixty days aforesaid if it satisfied that the dealer had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within that period.

- (2) The appeal shall be in the prescribed form, shall be verified in the prescribed manner and shall be accompanied by such fee which shall not be less than Rupees five hundred only but shall not exceed Rupees two thousand only as may be prescribed.

Rule 47; Form APP 403

- (3) The High Court shall, after giving both parties to the appeal, a reasonable opportunity of being heard, pass such order thereon as it thinks fit.
- (4) The provisions of sub-sections (4), (7) and (8) of Section 34 shall mutatis-mutandis apply in relation to appeals preferred under sub-section (1) as they apply in relation to petitions preferred under sub-section (1) of Section 34.

Rule 48: Form APP 405

Sec.36. Petitions, applications to be heard by a Bench:- Every petition, application or appeal preferred to the High Court under Sections 34 or 35 shall be heard by a Bench of not less than two judges, and in respect of such petition, application or appeal, the provisions of Section 98 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908) shall, so far as may be, apply.

Sec.37. Limitation in respect of certain assessments or re-assessments ordered:- Notwithstanding anything contained in Sections 21 and 32 where an assessment, re-assessment, rectification in or revision of an assessment is made in respect of a dealer or any person, in pursuance or in consequence of or to give effect to any finding or direction contained in an order under Sections 31, 32, 33, 34 and 35 or in an order of any court in a proceeding, otherwise than by way of appeal or revision such assessment, re-assessment, rectification in or revision, of an assessment shall be made within three years from the date of receipt of such order by the prescribed or revising authority as the case may be:

Sections 21, 31, 32, 33, 34, & 35; Rules 25, 59, & 60

Provided that if such appeal, order or order of any court has been subjected to further appeal, either partially or entirely, and if there are orders of stay prohibiting the authority concerned to pass consequential orders, the period of three years shall get extended by the period during which such stay orders were in force:

Provided further that if the subsequent appeal results in modification of such appeal, order or order of any court which is subjected to further appeal, either partially or wholly, the period of three years shall be computed from the date of receipt of subsequent order of appeal but not from the date of receipt of the original appeal, order or order of any court which was subjected to further appeal.

- (d) may retain any such book or record for a period of one month for determining the tax liability of a dealer or for any proceedings under the Act;

Provided that where such books or records are needed for more than one month, the permission of the next higher authority shall be obtained for each additional month;

- (e) may seize and retain the computer for a period of one month where a hard copy or computer disk of information stored in a computer is not furnished, to get the information required:

Provided that such computer is needed for more than one month, the permission of the next higher authority shall be obtained for each additional month; and

- (f) shall have power to enter and search any office, shop, godown, vessel, receptacle or vehicle or any other place of a carrier or bailee where goods are delivered to such carrier or bailee for transmission.

- (2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), any such officer shall have power to enter and search at any time during the business hours prescribed under the relevant law for the time being in force, or where no such hours are prescribed, at all reasonable times, any office, shop, godown, vessel, vehicle or any other place of business or any building or place where such officer has reason to believe that the dealer keeps or is, for the time being, keeping any goods, accounts, registers or other documents of his business:

Rule 59

Provided that no residential accommodation not being a shop-cum-residence shall be entered into and searched by any officer below the rank of Deputy Commercial Tax Officer except on the authority of an order issued by any officer not below the rank of a Deputy Commissioner having jurisdiction over the area or an officer not below the rank of Deputy Commissioner working in Vigilance and Enforcement Department having jurisdiction over the entire State of Andhra Pradesh and all searches under this sub-section shall so far as may be, made in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 subject to the rules if any, made in this behalf.

- (3) The power conferred by sub-section (2) shall include the power to break open any box or receptacle in which any goods, accounts, registers or other documents of the dealer may be contained, or to break open the door of any premises, where any such goods, accounts, registers or other documents may be kept:

Provided that the power to break open the door shall be exercised only after the owner or any other person in occupation of the premises, if he is present therein, fails or refuses to open the door on being called upon to do so.

- (4) The power conferred by sub-section (2) shall also include the power to:-
- (a) seal for a period of not exceeding twenty-four hours, any box, receptacle, godown or building where any goods, accounts, registers or other documents of the dealer are, or reasonably believed to be kept, if the owner or any other person in occupation, leaves the premises or refuses to open any box, receptacle, godown or building or is not readily available;
- (b) search any person, other than customer or a visitor, who has got out of or is about to get into, or is in, any building, vessel or vehicle, if the officer has reason to suspect that such person has secreted about any goods, accounts, registers or other documents.
- (5) Any such officer shall have power to seize and confiscate any goods which are found in any office, shop, godown, vehicle, vessel or any other place of business or any building or place of the dealer, but not accounted for by the dealer in his accounts, registers and other documents maintained in the course of his business:

Rule 53; Forms 603, 604, 605, 606, 607 & 608

Provided that before taking action for the confiscation of goods under this sub-section, the officer shall give the person affected an opportunity of being heard and make an inquiry in the prescribed manner.

- (6) The owner, manager, or any other VAT dealer or TOT dealer shall provide all reasonable facilities and assistance for the effective exercise of the powers under this Section by such officer.
- (7) A VAT dealer or TOT dealer whose books, records, or computer have been removed and retained under sub-section (1) may examine them and make copies or extracts from them during regular office hours under such supervision as the Commissioner or inspecting authority as may be determined.

Sec.44. Fair Market Value:- (1) Where the authority prescribed has reason to believe that any goods of a fair market value exceeding Rs.5,000/- (Rupees five thousand only) have been sold or purchased by a dealer, to or from another dealer or person, as the case may be, for a consideration which is less than fair market price of the goods and that consideration for such sale or purchase as agreed to between the parties has not been truly stated in the invoice or delivery challan or any other document relating thereto, with the object of facilitating the reduction or evasion of the tax payable under the Act, the authority prescribed may, subject to the provisions of this section, initiate proceedings for seizure and the acquisition of such goods.

- (2) The powers conferred under sub-section (1) shall be exercised by the authority prescribed in respect of goods sold or purchased which are in transit or in the possession of the seller or buyer or his agent.
- (3) In any proceedings under this section in respect of any goods which have been sold or purchased for a consideration which is less than its fair market price, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that the consideration for such sale as agreed to between the parties has not been truly stated in the invoice, or sale bill or other documents related thereto with such object as is referred to in sub-section (1).

- (4) Before initiating such proceedings, the authority prescribed shall record his reasons for doing so and no orders shall be passed under sub-section (1) without giving the VAT dealer or TOT dealer an opportunity of being heard.
- (5) No such proceedings shall be initiated unless the authority prescribed has reason to believe that the fair market price of the goods exceeds the consideration therefor by more than twenty per cent.
- (6) Where any goods are acquired under this section the authority prescribed shall pay for such acquisition compensation which shall be a sum equal to the aggregate of the amount of sale price of the goods mentioned in the invoice or delivery challan or any document related thereto and any expenditure incurred on freight or any other incidental expenses incurred by the VAT dealer or TOT dealer in relation to those goods.

CHAPTER VII

ESTABLISHMENT OF CHECK POSTS

Sec.45. Establishment of check posts:- (1) If the Government or the Commissioner considers it necessary that with a view to prevent or check evasion of tax in any place or places in the State, it is necessary so to do, the Government or the Commissioner may, by notification, direct the setting up of a check post or the erection of a barrier, or both, at such place or places as may be notified.

- (2) At every check post or barrier mentioned in sub-section (1), or at any other place when so required by any officer empowered by the Government in this behalf, the driver or any other person in charge of goods vehicle or vessel shall stop the vehicle or vessel as the case may be, and keep it stationary as long as may reasonably be necessary, and allow the officer in charge of the check post or barrier, or the officer empowered as aforesaid, to examine the contents in the vehicle or vessel and inspect all records relating to the goods carried, which are in the possession of such driver or other person in charge for the purpose of ascertaining whether there has been any sale or purchase of goods carried and in case there was sale or purchase of the goods carried, whether such sale or purchase is liable to tax and if so:-

- (a) whether such tax has been paid; or
- (b) whether the sale or purchase of the goods carried has, for the purpose of payment of tax been properly accounted for in the bills of sale, or delivery notes or such other documents as may be prescribed.
- (3) If on such examination and inspection it appears:-
- (a) (i) that the tax, if any payable in respect of the sale or purchase of the goods carried, has been paid; or

- (ii) that the sale or purchase of the goods carried has, for the purpose of payment of tax been properly accounted for in the documents referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (2); the said officer shall release the goods vehicle or vessel with the goods carried;
- (b) (i) that the tax, if any, payable in respect of the sale or purchase of the goods carried has not been paid; or
 - (ii) that the sale or purchase of the goods carried has, for the purpose of payment of tax not been properly accounted for in the documents referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (2); and if the said officer is satisfied, after making such enquiry as he deems fit, that with a view to prevent the evasion of tax payable in respect of the sale or purchase of the goods, carried, it is necessary to detain the goods he shall detain the goods and direct the driver or any other person in-charge of the goods vehicle or vessel to pay such tax, or to furnish security for an amount equal to two times the amount of tax payable in such form and in such manner and to such authority as may be prescribed, on behalf of the person liable to pay such tax.
- (4) If the tax is paid or the security is furnished, then the goods so detained shall be released forthwith.
- (5) The driver or any other person in charge of the goods vehicle or vessel shall, if so required, give his name and address and the name and address of the owner of the goods vehicle or vessel as well as those of the consignor and the consignee of the goods.
- (6) If the tax directed to be paid or the security directed to be furnished under sub-section (3) is not paid and furnished and if the said officer is satisfied, after making such enquiry as he deems fit, that with a view to prevent the evasion of tax payable in respect of the sale or purchase of the goods carried, it is necessary to detain the goods, he shall detain so much of the goods as are approximately equal in value to the amount of tax directed to be paid or security directed to be furnished under sub-section (3) as long as may reasonably be necessary :

Rule 56; Form 610

Provided that no such goods shall be detained by the said officer for more than three days except with the permission of the next higher authority.

- (7) (a) Where goods are carried without paying tax, if any, payable or goods are carried without being properly accounted for in the documents referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (2), the said officer shall collect the tax payable on the goods so carried and in addition levy a penalty not exceeding two times the amount of tax payable on such goods after giving a reasonable opportunity to the person likely to be effected, against the proposed penalty;
- (b) any such officer shall have power to seize and confiscate any goods where such goods are carried in the goods vehicle without any documents or covered by fictitious documents:

Provided that before taking action for the confiscation of goods under this sub-section, the officer shall give the person affected an opportunity of being heard.

- (8) In case the goods detained under sub-section (6) are subject to speedy and natural decay, and in the case of the goods, where no claim is made within the prescribed period, the said officer shall, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, sell such goods in open auction and remit the sale proceeds thereof in a Government treasury:

Provided that if the said officer is an officer below the rank of a Deputy Commercial Tax Officer, the sale under this sub-section shall be effected by the Deputy Commercial Tax Officer having jurisdiction.

- (9) Any person entitled to such sale proceeds shall, on application to the authority prescribed and upon sufficient proof, be paid the sale proceeds mentioned in sub-section (8), after deducting the expenses of the sale and other incidental charges and the amount of tax and penalty due in respect of the sale or purchase of the goods in question.

Explanation:- For the purpose of this section, the explanation 'said officer' means the officer-in-charge of the check-post or barrier or the officer empowered under sub-section (2).

Sec.46. Power to inspect carrier's Places:- (1) Where a carrier or bailee, to whom goods are delivered for transmission, before delivery is taken from him, keeps the said goods in any office, shop, godown, vessel, receptacle, vehicle or any other place, any officer not below the rank of Deputy Commercial Tax Officer, shall have power to enter into and search such office, shop, godown, vessel, receptacle, vehicle or other place of business or building or place, and to examine the goods and inspect all records relating to such goods. The carrier or bailee or the person in-charge of the goods and records shall give all facilities for such examination or inspection and shall if so required produce the bill of sale or delivery note or such other document as may be prescribed regarding the goods and give his name and address and the name and address of the carrier or the bailee and the consignee.

Explanation: For the purpose of this section, where goods are delivered to a carrier or a bailee for transmission, the movement of goods shall be deemed to commence at the time of such delivery and terminate at the time when delivery is taken from such carrier or bailee.

(2) Any such officer shall have power to seize and confiscate any goods which are found in any office, shop, godown, vehicle, vessel or any other place of business or any building or place of a carrier or a bailee for transmission where such goods are not covered by any document or covered by fictitious documents:

Provided that before taking action for the confiscation of goods the officer shall give the person affected an opportunity of being heard.

Sec.47. Transit Pass:- Where a vehicle carrying goods coming from any place outside the State and bound for any other place outside the State, pass through the State, the driver or other person-in-charge of such vehicle shall obtain in the prescribed manner a transit pass from the officer-in-charge of the first check post or barrier after his entry into the state and deliver it to the officer-in-charge of the last check-post or barrier before his exit from the State, failing which it shall be presumed that the goods carried thereby have been sold within the State by the owner or person-in-charge of the vehicle and accordingly the tax shall be assessed and penalty, if any shall be levied in accordance with the provisions of the Act:

Rules 58, 59; Forms 615, 616

Provided that where the goods carried by such vehicle are, after their entry into the State, transported outside the State by any other vehicle or conveyance, the burden of proving that the goods have actually moved out of the State shall be on the owner or person-in-charge of the vehicle.

Explanation: If a vehicle is hired for transportation of goods by any person, the hirer of that vehicle shall be deemed to be the owner of the vehicle.

Sec.48. Possession and submission of certain records by owners etc., of goods vehicles:-The owner or other person in charge of goods vehicle or vessel shall carry with him:-

- (a) bill of sale or tax invoice or delivery note;
- (b) log book or goods vehicle record or trip sheet; and
- (c) such other documents as may be prescribed, relating to the goods under transport and containing such particulars as may be prescribed and shall submit to the Commercial Tax Officer, having jurisdiction over the area in which the

CASE LAW

There is a simultaneous repeal and the re-enactment. The A.P.VAT Act,2005 clearly saves the earlier provisions in toto. Consequently rights and liabilities accrued or incurred under the A.P.G.S.T. Act,1957 shall continue even after it is repealed, unless the re-enacted enactment manifests an intention incompatible with or contrary to the provisions of the repealed Act. Gammon India Ltd. Vs. Special Chief Secretary, (2006) 3 SCC 354; 2006(2) Supreme 454.

Sec.81. Repeal of Ordinance 1 of 2005:- The Andhra Pradesh Value Added Tax Ordinance, 2005 is hereby repealed.
